

Vita Sackville-West (1892 - 1962)

Artist Facts:

- Vita Sackville-West was a British poet, novelist, and garden designer born in Kent.
- Being outside and around nature often inspired her work.
- Gardens at her home in Kent included a White Garden, Rose Garden, Orchard, Cottage Garden and Nuttery.

Artwork Facts:

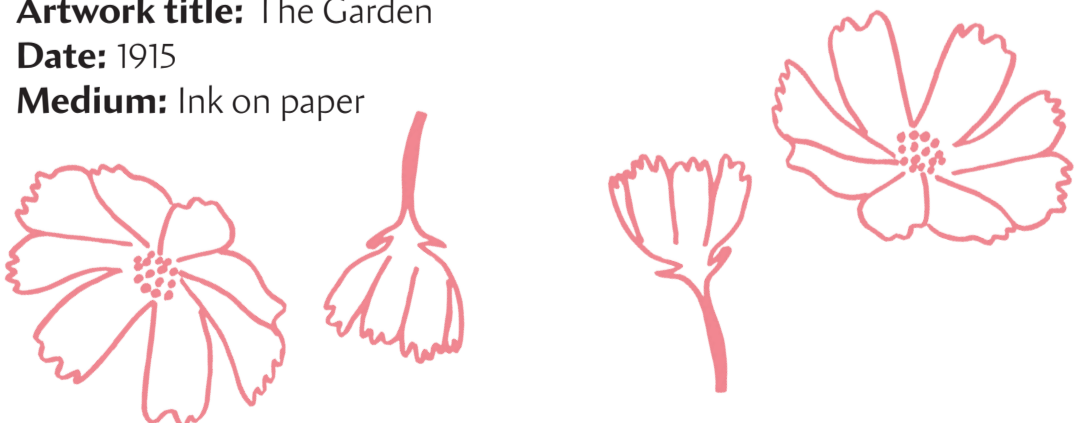

- This poem is inspired by Vita's joy of being at home with her family and her love of gardening.
- The poem uses both rhythm and rhyme to suggest peace and happiness.
- Can you spot the words that rhyme?
- What words would you use to describe your garden at home or at school?

Artwork title: The Garden

Date: 1915

Medium: Ink on paper

Artwork title: Vita Sackville-West

Date: 1958

Medium: Bromide print

