

Anthony Gross (1905 - 1984)

Artist Facts:

- Anthony Gross was a British printmaker and painter born in London.
- Anthony served as an Official War Artist in the Second World War, a role that saw him produce works of art that recorded the events of the war.
- Prints by Anthony Gross in the Garden Museum's collection show the back gardens of London, as well as flying kites in Battersea Park.

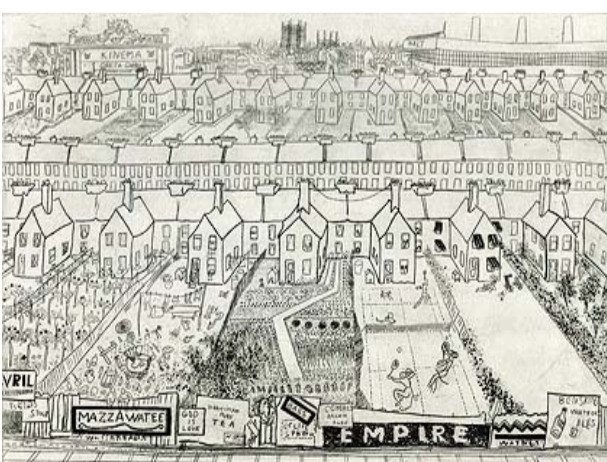

Artwork title: Mary and Pete with Pear Tree

Date: 1948

Medium: Watercolour on paper

Artwork Facts:

- This watercolour shows the artist's own children in the back garden of the family home in London.
- The painting uses bright colours of blue and pink to create an atmospheric fairytale scene.
- What else can you see in the garden?
- How would you describe the atmosphere of the image?
- What season do you think it is in the image?
- Can you make up a story about the picture?

Artwork title: South London

Date: 1935

Medium: Intaglio print

Artwork title: Winter Grasses

Date: 1972

Medium: Intaglio print