

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE GARDEN MUSEUM

The American Friends of the Garden Museum are a generous group of individuals who help to fund our collection, exhibitions and educational activities, and raise awareness of the Museum's work among Americans in the U.S.

The group celebrate the unique relationship between British and American gardens, which have inspired each other since John Tradescant the Younger sailed to Virginia in 1628.

As well as supporting our work, our Friends receive a copy of our bi-annual Garden Journal, and an invitation to the opening party of our Constance Spry exhibition on Tuesday 20th October 2020.

Membership is $500
