

Fourth fold

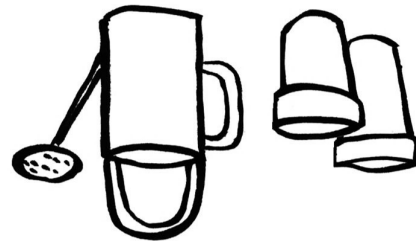

Did you know you can collect seeds and grow your own plants?

Tip: Look out for dried seed heads - little canisters of seeds left when the flowers have finished. You should be able to hear them rattle if they are ripe.

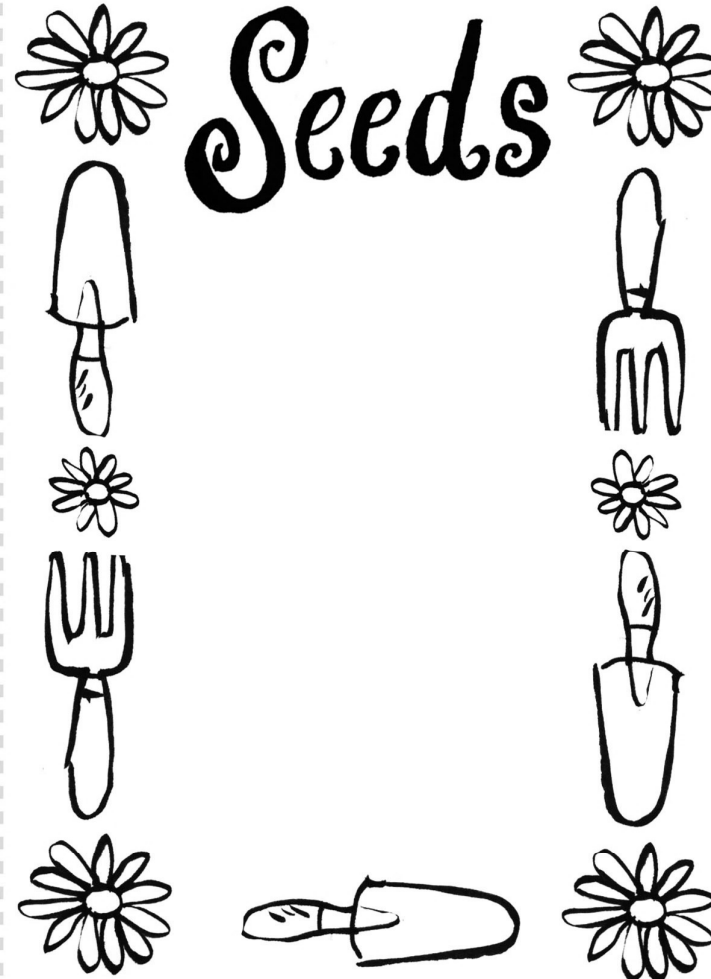

Shake them into this envelope, keep them in a dry place, then scatter in spring.

To make the envelope, draw your vegetable, flower or fruit on the front, then fold along the dotted lines.

First fold

Second fold

Contents:

Collected by:

Date:

Design and illustration: Jane Porter

GARDEN MUSEUM

Third fold